

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, MONDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1909.

NUMBER 177.

VOLUME LIII.

JAPS SOUGHT TO GAIN INFORMATION

WISHED TO UNDERSTAND METHODS OF BUSINESS THOROUGHLY.

WANTED MANY DETAILS

Asked Particularly About Christianity and Business as Combined in United States.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 4.—No kind of information was more eagerly sought by the honorary commercial commissioners from Japan during their recent trip through the western states than that on the influence of the Christian religion on commercial acts in this country. The American "experts" traveling with the party met this question from the envoys over and over again. "What is the influence of the Christian religion on these commercial acts," referring to the many methods and problems involved in the workings of American industry.

In an address to a class of students at the First Congregational church on Sunday, Prof. Stephen F. Gilman, who represented the cities of Minneapolis, Duluth, St. Paul and Milwaukee with the party, declared he was impressed by nothing more than by the earnestness and oft-repeated inquiries addressed to him by the shrewd Japanese business men touching on this significant topic.

The Japanese visited the great docks and smelting plants near Duluth; they saw huge freighters that could unload 10,000 tons of ore in three minutes; and they marvelled at it all. Then they wanted to know all about the processes, and especially of the relations controlling the companies and their employees. What were the labor conditions? What about the justice in the transportation charges; the wages paid, and other questions along this line? Always it centered in the question: "What influence has the Christian religion on these commercial acts?"

"I was astounded beyond measure," said Prof. Gilman, in describing his impressions of the Japanese commissioners, "at the marvelous grasp of conditions manifested by those little men from the little kingdom of Japan. At times I could do nothing but gasp at the acuteness and knowledge shown by them. They would corner us Americans in the library car, as late as ten o'clock at night, and begin to ask us with questions frank and searching. If they had seen machinery which they had not yet had, they wanted to know why we hadn't introduced it in Japan. They were extremely earnest about it. They would ask questions until 1 or 2 o'clock in the morning, and their secretaries would often work all night. They are prodigious workers. They digest all the information they can possibly get, and then wind up with the inquiry, "What is the influence of the Christian religion on these commercial acts?"

They look at all the wonders in our commercial development, and then ask us the question of the influence of the Christian religion on it all. Baron Kanda, that great educational expert of the flower kingdom, expressed this query to me over and over again. They all want the facts. These people are intensely practical. At Fargo and Grand Forks in the Red River valley the party met with automobile. The Japanese asked us how all those auto owners could afford cars, and they never forgot to ask about the influence of the Christian religion upon the lives of the poor people who might own cars. And they wanted to know all these things as a matter of vital necessity, for the betterment in their home land.

Prof. Gilman declared that the Japanese, having an intensive manner of investigation and a marvelous enthusiasm, promise to outdistance the Americans in time, and he felt called upon to give this warning to American students many times during the trip from the Pacific coast to Milwaukee.

WILBUR WRIGHT MADE SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT

Covered Distance of Fifteen Miles Around New York in Thirty-Three Minutes Today.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, Oct. 4.—Wilbur Wright made a successful flight in an aeroplane this morning. After circling about the Battery for a short time he sent his machine up the Hudson river, flying about one hundred feet above the surface of the water. He went up the river a few miles and turned and landed at Governor's Island at 10:20 a.m. The distance traveled was fifteen miles; time, 33 minutes, 33 seconds.

SURPRISED THIEVES IN HIS FUR STORE

La Cross Man Entered Establishment As Thieves Were About To Take Second Load Away.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

La Cross, Wis., Oct. 4.—Entering his store at about five o'clock Sunday morning to get his fishing tackle preparatory to going on a fishing expedition, Paul Lutz proprietor of a large fur store, surprised a gang of thieves plundering his establishment. The men fled hastily through a rear door and escaped. Examination showed that about $5,000 worth of furs had been taken and the thieves had evidently returned the second time when discovered. Part of the goods, it is believed, were shipped to Milwaukee. Entrance was secured through a skylight in the roof, the thieves then unbolting the rear door.

ELIOT'S SUCCESSOR TO BE INSTALLED

Dr. Lowell To Be Inaugurated President Of Harvard University On Wednesday.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 4.—The arrangements for the inauguration of A. Lawrence Lowell, the new president of Harvard University, are practically completed and many of the representatives of other institutions of learning who are to attend the formal induction ceremony on Wednesday, have already arrived. The entire inauguration program will extend over three days, beginning with tomorrow and culminating in the imposing induction ceremony before University Hall on the second day. A large cortege, which will accommodate 2,000 persons, has been erected for the occasion. There President Lowell will read his inaugural address, surrounded by the University's Governing Board, members of the Faculty, delegates from other institutions and invited guests. It is expected that the presidents of 125 universities and colleges will attend the ceremony.

The exercises will begin at 10 a.m. when Sheriff Edward A. Fairhurst will call the assembly to order. An alumnus choir will sing and after prayer has been offered, a Senior will read a Latin address of a congratulatory nature. Dr. Lowell will then be formally inducted into office by the President of the Board of Overseers, John D. Long. The induction will include the presentation to President Lowell of the ancient ceremonial keys of the university, the original seal of 1640 and the official seal of Harvard. President Lowell's inaugural address is expected to contain an outline of the future governing policies of the university.

In the afternoon the men will dine in Memorial Hall and the women guests in Bertram Hall, a Radcliffe building. A concert by the Boston Symphony Orchestra in Sanders' Theatre in the evening following by a student demonstration in the Student Hall will conclude the events of the principal day.

JUDGES OF SUPREME COURT RESUME WORK

United States Tribunal Commences Term of 1909-10 After Four-Month Vacation.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—After a four-months' vacation the Supreme Court of the United States convened today for the term of 1909-10. No official session was transacted beyond the reading of attorney's briefs to the bar. Tomorrow the oral of the docket will be begun and the presentation of arguments in contested cases will be in order. Association Justice Moody is not expected to be able to resume his work on the bench this fall, being confined to his home by illness, and it is likely that Justice Harlan will be prevented from sitting on the bench the greater part of the term, as he also is in ill health.

A number of interesting cases are on the docket for the present term. Foremost in public interest are the railroad rate cases. Another case of interest is that of former Sheriff J. E. Shipp of Chattanooga, Tenn., and his five co-defendants, who have been cited to appear before the supreme tribunal to receive sentence for conspiracy to commit a lynching in connection with the lynching of the negro Johnson.

REPORT CAUSES A FLURRY IN COTTON

Prices Jump Up Sixteen to Twenty Points Today on Receipt of Government Report.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, Oct. 4.—The government report on the condition of cotton today caused a very active and exciting market and a great irregularity in prices. December cotton sold at $13.51 and March at $13.60 or 16 to 20 points above Saturday's closing price. Tremendous realizing caused the market to lose most of its advance.

TEACHER RESIGNS TO BE MEAT INSPECTOR

Received Eighty Dollars a Month But Is to Take Two Thousand a Year Job.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 4.—Albert Tellmowich, who enjoys the distinction of being the highest salaried country school teacher in Wisconsin, and who has been receiving a salary of $80 per month from the town of Fazinburg in the northern part of the county, has resigned to accept a position as United States meat inspector in the state of Iowa. He will receive a salary of $2000 a year and expenses.

TAFT RECEIVED BY RECEPTION COMMITTEE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

San Francisco, Calif., Oct. 4.—The first stop of importance made by President Taft's train today was at Redding, where he addressed a big crowd, among them a large number of school children. At that place President Taft was met by Gov. Gillett and the committee of businessmen from the Bay Cities, who welcomed the president.

Taft's program included a stop at Sacramento, where a reception will be held in the state capitol.

KILLED HIMSELF IN HIS OFFICE TODAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

McConnelville, Ohio, Oct. 4.—Prosecuting Attorney Frank Parsons shot and killed himself in his office last night. Temporary insanity, it is thought, is the cause.

A FRANTIC WIRELESS FROM AFRICA.

Roosevelt—Say, you newspaper fellows, what's the matter with you? Somebody is forgetting that I am over here.

VIRGINIA'S FAIR IS LARGEST EVER HELD

Best Show of Its Kind in State Opened in Richmond Today—Kansas City's Carnival.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Richmond, Va., Oct. 4.—The largest and most comprehensive state fair ever held in Virginia opened here today under the most encouraging auspices. The premium list is remarkably long this year and the prize aggregate $10,000. One of the special features of the fair is the "King Corn" contest in which $2,000 will be awarded for the best corn grown in Virginia. The cattle show is the largest ever held in the state, with a premium list amounting to a total of $10,000. Generous prizes are also offered for needlework, children's work, mineral trading products, preserves and domestic products of all kinds. During the week of the fair, which closes Saturday night, there will be fifty-five horse-races for liberal purses.

"MINNESOTA" GIVEN HANDSOME PRESENTS

Silver Service and Standard of Colors Presented to Battleship at New York Today.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Oct. 4.—A handsome silver service and a standard of colors were presented to the battleship Minnesota, at anchor in the North River, today by a committee of prominent citizens of Minneapolis and St. Paul.

The silver service is one of the largest and most elaborate ever presented to any ship of the navy. The central feature of the set is a punch bowl and plateaux weighing more than 1,000 ounces.

THREE TIMES SAVED: SEEKS PARDON AGAIN

Petition of John Harper, Thrice Sentenced to Death, Before Georgia Prison Commission.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 4.—The prison commission today took up for a final hearing the case of John Harper, the Murray county slayer, for whom a numerously signed petition has been presented asking for a commutation of sentence to life imprisonment. If the commission decides adversely Harper will be hanged next Friday.

Harper's case has been one of the bboldest fought in the history of Georgia. He was convicted of killing George Keith, sheriff of Murray county, in August, 1907. Sheriff Keith was attempting to arrest Harper for the alleged killing of another man in another county at the time he was slain. He has been three times sentenced to death and as many times saved from the gallows by a reprieve.

FISHERMEN MADE FIGHT FOR LIVES

Overturned While Fishing They Cling to Boat For Two Hours Before Rescued.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Oshkosh, Wis., Oct. 4.—Fred Lemke and Anton Conko had an experience Sunday night on Lake Winnebago which was almost a tragedy. They were out fishing in a large row boat and while returning home, the boat capsized at about ten o'clock and they clung to the overturned boat for two hours calling for help. The water was ten degrees and both men were nearly exhausted.

GREY LAYS CORNERSTONE AT REGINA, SASKATCHEWAN

Governor of Canada Presides at Ceremony for New Parliament Building Today.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Rugby, Sask., Oct. 4.—The laying of the cornerstone for the new parliament buildings of Saskatchewan today was an occasion for elaborate ceremonies. His Excellency Earl Grey presided and the other participants included all of the chief officials of the province. The day was observed as a civic holiday and hundreds of visitors from the surrounding country were in the city to witness the ceremony.

STRICT ENFORCEMENT TO STUDY LIFE IN PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

F. C. Cole Sent by Field Museum to Study Civilization in Haunts of Head Hunters.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Mr. F. C. Cole, of the anthropological staff of the Field museum of natural history, accompanied by his wife, started today on an expedition of two years to the southern islands of the Philippine group, which are the abode of a number of head-hunting tribes whose civilization is practically unknown. Mr. and Mrs. Cole undertook the expedition in the interest of the Field museum and expect to bring back with them a large collection of implements, industrial products, etc., of the various wild tribes inhabiting the islands of Palauan, Uiguan, Mindoro and Mindanao. They will devote two years to the study of the civilization, customs and habits of the Bagobano, Mangyan, Bugalon, Moros and other wild tribes. Two years ago Mr. Cole visited the Tingulans and other tribes in northwestern Luzon and the large and interesting collections which he brought with him are now exhibited in the Field museum. Dr. Cole does not anticipate any danger from the head-hunting tribes.

"MINNESOTA" GIVEN HANDSOME PRESENTS

Silver Service and Standard of Colors Presented to Battleship at New York Today.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Oct. 4.—A handsome silver service and a standard of colors were presented to the battleship Minnesota, at anchor in the North River, today by a committee of prominent citizens of Minneapolis and St. Paul.

The silver service is one of the largest and most elaborate ever presented to any ship of the navy. The central feature of the set is a punch bowl and plateaux weighing more than 1,000 ounces.

CHAMPIONSHIP MEET OF A. A. U. TONIGHT

First Events of Indoor Competitions Run Off in Square Garden, Tonight.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Oct. 4.—Seldom however an athletic meet brought together such clumsy athletes as those who are to compete in Madison Square Garden tonight and tomorrow night. The occasion will be the annual indoor track and field championships of the Amateur Athletic Union and will mark the opening of the indoor season.

The committee has arranged so that both nights are to be final nights. There are twenty-two events on the program, which is as follows: Monday—75-yard run, 100-yard run, 1000-yard run, two-mile run, 220-yard hurdle, standing broad jump, running hop, step and jump, throwing 56-pound weight for height, putting 2-pound shot, polo vault for distance, running high jump, one-mile walk. Tuesday—60-yard run, 150-yard run, 600-yard run, three-mile run, 300-yard hurdle, standing high jump, three standing broad jumps, putting 24-pound shot, pole vault for height, and three-mile walk.

A gold medal emblematic of the championship of the United States will be given to the winner in each event, a silver medal to the second, and a bronze medal to the third.

GAD SMITH DIES IN MARQUETTE TODAY

Collector of Superior District Passes Away at the Age of Sixty-seven.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Marquette, Mich., Oct. 4.—Gad North Smith, collector of customs of the Superior district, with headquarters in this city, is dead at the age of 67 years.

Meeting of Street Car Men.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 4.—Street railway officials from the principal cities of the country arrived in Denver today to attend the annual convention of the American Street and Interurban Railway association. The convention proceedings will begin tomorrow and continue until Friday.

GERMANS IMPRISONED AS SPIES IN RUSSIA

Two of Kaiser's Subjects Given Four and Two Years Each on Charge of Espionage.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Warsaw, Oct. 4.—The military court has condemned two German subjects, one to four years and the other to two years imprisonment in the penitentiary, on the charge of espionage.

SILVER JUBILEE OF PRIEST AT MENASHA

Parishioners of Fr. De Kelver Have Special Exercises and Present Him With Gifts.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Menasha, Wis., Oct. 4.—In honor of the 25th anniversary of his pastorate in this city, as priest of St. Patrick's parish, the congregation of the church on Sunday afternoon and evening held a silver jubilee in honor of Rev. Father William De Kelver. The event, which was quite elaborate arrangement, was planned by the ladies and was a complete surprise to the venerable priest when he was called to the school hall where the assembled parishioners and friends warmly greeted him. A program was carried out and Father De Kelver was substantially remembered.

Many Confirmed.

At St. Mary's church Sunday, special confirmation exercises were held, a class of 100 confirmants was confirmed by Bishop Fox of Green Bay. Six other outside priests were present.

It was the largest class ever to be confirmed in Winnebago, Outagamie or Calumet counties.

Corner Stone Laid.

With impressive ceremonies, the corner stone of the new $10,000 Emmanuel Lutheran church, was laid Sunday afternoon. Rev. August Kleinhahn preached the sermon and remarks were made by other Lutheran pastors of Winnebago county. The dedication was in connection with the Harvest Festival and communion service.

Wonderful Escape.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dahms miraculously escaped death

PROFESSIONAL CARDSStanley G. Dunwiddie

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Lovejoy Block. New phone 228.

CORYDON G. DWIGHT, M. D.207 Jackman Block
Practiced limited to
EYE, EAR, NOSE and THROAT
GLASSES FITTEDConsultation from 9 to 12, and 2 to 5,
and by appointment.
New phone 890 red. Old phone 2762.

Dr. Frederick C. Lindstrom

OSTEOPATHY

Suite 322-323 Hayes Block,
Rock Co. phone 129, Wm. phone 2114.
Janesville, Wis.
Licensed by Wisconsin Board of Medical Examiners.W. H. BLAIR
ARCHITECT
ROOM 3 PHOEBUS BLOCK
Janesville, Wis.RALPH H. BENNETT
PIANO TUNING,
924 Park Avenue, Beloit, Wis.
Piano-phayor and Pipe Organ work
a specialty.
Leave orders at J. P. Baker's Drug
Store.Thos. S. Nolan, H. W. Adams,
C. W. Reeder.NOLAN, ADAMS & REEDER
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
406-308 Goodwin Building, Beloit, Wis.
611-618 Jackman Bldg., Janesville, Wis.HILTON & SADLER
THE ARCHITECTS.
CAREFUL ATTENTION TO EVERY DETAIL.
Office on the Bridge, Janesville.E. J. KENT
SIGNS
PLATE AND WINDOW GLASS AND PAINTS.
Dodge St., near rear of Postoffice.
New phone 482 black.CARPENTER & DAY
ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS
Over Brown Bros.
Rock Co. Phone 279.
CROCKER-WHEELER MOTORS.J. A. DENNING
Estimates furnished on
CONTRACTING and BUILDING
Mason work a specialty. Mandt Co.
ment block used. Best two-piece block made. Shop 66 S. Franklin.
Residence 423 Cherry St. Both phones.BLOEDEL & RICE
THE MAIN ST. PAINTERS.Estimates furnished on all kinds of painting, interior decoration and paper hanging. Headquarters for all kinds of plate and window glass. Get our prices before buying elsewhere.Electric PowerWith electric motor drive your men are not standing idle
waiting for repair to be made.When you have a General Electric Motorattach each tool an accident to one machine does not shut down the others.

JANESEVILLE ELECTRIC CO.

BELOIT SHUT OUT JANESEVILLE NINE

LINE CITY TROLLEY LEAGUE WON BY 2-0-0 SCORE.

WAS SPLENDID CONTEST

And Was Very Exciting but Umpires' Decisions Gave Beloit Two Scores In the Eighth Inning.

Beloit trolley league players shut out Janesville at Yost's Park yesterday 2 to 0 in a scrappy exciting game, but it was Schuler's decisions in the Smith struck out and then Perrin, Beloit's "idol" from the Cleveland Americans, knocked out a nice little two-hopper. McAuley, the next man up, failed to do anything and Perrin died on second when the side went down. Janesville came to bat and Fulton, Mcu and Solberg were struck out in one-to-one-three order. Beloit failed to do anything in the second and Janesville's record was almost the same, though Porter managed to reach first base on a passed ball.

The season first began to get warm in the fourth inning, when Liese on a safe hit managed to steal third and Pierce given free passage to first reached second on Hizer's strikeout. Liese also attempted to steal home, but was caught between home and third base.

Hope first began to revive in the hearts of the Janesville fans in the sixth inning, when a drive near second, which McAuley failed to reach, landed Anderson on the first sack. Wilson sacrificed and Anderson went to second, but Rowland and Fulton failed to do the work and Anderson died on the second bag.

Bolton's attempt to score in the seventh inning failed, Hizer pounded out a single-sacker and Erickson, sacrificing, advanced him to second. He stole third, and then Rowland settled down and struck out the next two batters.

After the exciting scene in the first part of the eighth inning, Janesville finally took its medicine.

The score of the game:

	AB	R	H	SH	PO	A	E
Miller, cf	5	9	1	9	1	0	0
Smith, c	4	1	2	0	8	1	0
Perrin, 3	4	0	2	0	0	1	0
McAuley, 2	4	1	1	0	4	3	0
Liese, p	4	0	1	0	2	6	0
Pierce, ss	4	0	0	0	0	0	0
Hizer, 1	4	0	1	0	12	2	1
Erickson, rf	3	0	1	0	0	0	0
Fulton, p	4	0	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	36	2	8	1	27	13	1

	AB	R	H	SH	PO	A	E
Fulton, cf	4	0	0	0	2	0	0
McAuley, 2	4	0	0	0	11	0	0
Solberg, 1	3	0	0	0	2	3	1
Sullivan, 2	3	0	0	0	2	3	1
Porter, lf	3	0	0	0	1	0	1
Miller, 3	3	0	0	0	2	2	0
Anderson, cf	2	0	1	0	5	2	0
Wilson, p	3	0	0	1	0	0	0
Rowland, p	3	0	0	0	1	5	0
Totals	28	0	1	1	27	14	2

eighth inning rather than the superior playing of the Line City aggregation that won the game for them.

Smith, the first batter up in that inning, made a single, advancing Smith to third. McAuley's drive to centerfield was caught by Fulton, who threw home, the ball reaching the plate as Smith was coming in.

Decision was a close one and Schuler gave the run to Beloit. On that run Perrin made third. Perrin was caught between third and home on a squeeze play. Liese, the next batter, drove one into Wilson's mitts.

Next Sunday Janesville will meet Beloit with an even stronger aggregation than heretofore. Armstrong of the Madison nine of the Wisconsin-Illinois league has been secured to play third base, and George Casey, one of the managers of the locals, was in Chicago today to secure if possible one of the pitchers of the Chicago Cubs. If a Chicago man cannot be secured a strong-arm from Milwaukee will be put in the box next Sunday.

The playing was confined mostly to forward passes, punting and an occasional end run, but as for going through the line it was almost an impossibility. Ryan was the only one of the backs who was able to puncture the Beloit line at all, the other being hampered by their injuries.

While most of the team played an excellent game, Hils and Sullivan's were especially good. Ryan, with head down and all his strength exerted, was thus able to push through Beloit, but not for any substantial gains.

Bolton placed the ball behind the goal once but it was not counted as a touchdown. On a forward pass the man who received the ball from the quarterback dropped it and another Beloit player picked up the plankin and having a clear field reached the goal easily.

The locals expect to beat Beloit in the return game to be played here if their men are in better condition than last Saturday.

The high school team lined up as follows:

Mac Donald, c.

Brown, lg.

Wilkinson, lt.

Williams, in.

Moh and Palmer, rg.

Edler, rt.

Sullivan, ro.

Green, qb.

Korst and Tuckwood, rh.

Merrill, th.

H. Ryan, fb.

McCarthy, sub-quarterback.

Hazon, substitute.

Business College Vs. Stoughton

An eleven composed of students at the Southern Wisconsin Business college went to Stoughton Saturday, where they played with the Stoughton high school eleven and were drubbed by the Stoughtonites 22 to 0. The failure of the Business College players to score was no doubt due to the fact that they had had but one signal practice before the game and have largely had to couch themselves, Stoughton secured all their goals in the first half, the college boys taking a brace in the second and holding them. The line-up for the business college: M. Mowen, re; Fitzgerald, rt; Hemingway, rg; Hendrickson, c; Newhall, lt; Larson, lt; E. Connor, le; Hall, qb; L. Dunlap, rh; Lounsbury, fb; W.H. Thorin, th.

Janesville high school will meet the Stoughton team at a later date.

MONROE RIPPED UP
WHITEWATER ELEVEN

Green County Team Scored Seven Touchdowns in Game at Monroe Saturday.

[EXCERPT FROM THE GAZETTE.]

Monroe, Wis., Oct. 4.—A high school football game played here Saturday afternoon between the Monroe and Whitewater teams was won by Monroe by a score of 35 to 0. Whitewater proved no match for Monroe. There was an exciting finish when Monroe in the last ten seconds lost the ball on downs on Whitewater's two-yard line. A Whitewater player attempted a rush through Monroe's center with the ball and was picked up bodily by Davis, the Monroe guard, and handed back over the goal line, Monroe scoring a touch-back.

The Women's club of Monroe will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary next Friday with a banquet at 6:30 o'clock for members and their invited guests.

Mrs. C. F. Piko was ninety years old Saturday and spent the day attending to her household duties as usual. Friends remembered her with flowers and many called to pay their respects on the occasion of the anniversary.

The time of the evening passenger train west on the Milwaukee road has been changed, taking effect today. The train is due here at 8:30 instead of 8:10 and the eastbound freight leaves at 7:30 instead of 8:10 and meets the passenger train at Jud.

The body of Mrs. Luther Sanders, who died at the Globe hospital, Freeport, was brought here Saturday evening and the funeral was held at 9:30 o'clock this morning at the Stauer church in Chenoa.

Presiding Elder William Caton of the Freeport district of the United Evangelical church died very suddenly in the union depot at St. Paul while returning from a western trip. He was 75 years of age. He conducted services in the Stauer church while located at Orangefield, his first charge, and has many friends here who were shocked to learn of his death. The funeral will be held at Orangefield Tuesday.

Mrs. Eva Lyman and children spent Saturday at Jud. Mrs. Lyman and children and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Mitchell, leave a week from Tuesday for California.

Mrs. W. J. McGilvray has returned to her home at Black River Falls after a visit to her parents here.

Miss Grace Schroeder spent Sunday with her father, Wm. Beckman, in St. Mary's hospital, Milwaukee.

Roy Jaberg was in Milwaukee over Sunday.

Mrs. A. S. Clark, who has been receiving treatment at the Lothrop Hospital, returned to her home at Broadhead Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. D. S. Mills of Whitewater visited her sister, Mrs. Mary Everett, in this city and went to Orangefield, Ability to counsel and execute on what to advertise, Where to Advertise, When to Advertise, and How to Advertise—plus the honesty and courage to advise whether or not to Advertise—these constitute true Advertising Service of The Gazette.

The next man up, struck out, but Beloit had two more scores, which was sufficient to win.

Lieze, the southpaw from the St. Paul American association team, pitched a wonderful game for Beloit. Only one of the Janesville players—Anderson, the catcher—was able to hit him at all. In place of Wilson, who hit last Sunday, was Rowland, who was pounded eight times for solo hits.

The game was exciting from start to finish and the findings were short. Beloit was first to bat, Mills and

SEEKS $100,000 FOR DEATH OF HUSBAND

Widow of Louis Blazek, Killed in Beloit Gas Plant, Sues Company for Damages.

[EXCERPT FROM THE GAZETTE.]

Beloit, Oct. 2.—The widow of Louis Blazek, a Prussian who was killed in an accident at the Beloit gas works a year ago, has begun suit against the company in the sum of $100,000 damages through the law firm of Nolan, Adams and Reeder. While at work about the gas plant an appliance exploded and Blazek was struck in the breast by an iron bar and died shortly after. The wife and two children of the dead man lived at Ruskin at the time and after the death the woman came to Beloit.

Before she came she understood that a suit for damages would be instituted and was surprised that the case was not going on when she arrived. She speaks no English and all transactions are done through interpreters. In order to bring about the case an administrator had to be selected, and Judge Sale has appointed T. R. Harper.

Mrs. Meyers, public librarian, is trying to interest the teachers of the public schools in library matters by giving lectures suggesting the uses of the library and discussing the new books for children. The teachers are enjoying the lectures and they will increase interest in the books of the day.

The second Congregational church will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary on the 9th and 10th inst. Among those to be present will be the Rev. H. P. Higley and Rev. W. W. Slooper, former pastors, who will come from the east to have a part in the celebration. Dr. Updike of Madison will be among the speakers.

[EXCERPT FROM THE GAZETTE.]

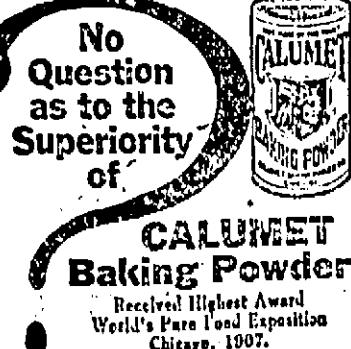

JANESVILLE HIGHS
TIED BELOIT TEAM

Local School Eleven Prevented Line City Players from Scoring in Game at Beloit Saturday.

[EXCERPT FROM THE GAZETTE.]

Janesville high school's football eleven in the game with Beloit high school Saturday at Beloit played an excellent game, considering the crippled condition of some of the men and held their opponents down to a score, 0 to 0. Of the men behind the line two of them were disabled by "charley-horses," a stiffening of the muscles, and one, Merrill, had sprained his ankle, which was still weak. They gave the Line City team quite a surprise, as the latter expected that the Bower City eleven would be no easy to beat this year, as last.

The playing was confined mostly to forward passes, punting and an occasional end run, but as for going through the line it was almost an impossibility. Ryan was the only one of the backs who was able to puncture the Beloit line at all, the other being hampered by their injuries. While most of the team played an excellent game, Hils and Sullivan's were especially good. Ryan, with head down and all his strength exerted, was thus able to push through Beloit, but not for any substantial gains.</div

Coal Hods, Stove Pipes, Etc.

It's time to put up stoves now and those who are thrifty will take advantage of the many little savings here.
Japanese Coal Hods, size 15, open top 10c
Japanese Coal Hods, size 17, open top 25c
Japanese Coal Hods, funnel tops, size 17 35c
Gaily Painted Coal Hods, size 17, open top 30c
Funnel top 35c
6-in. Stove Pipe, good heavy stock, per length 10c
Elbows to match 10c
Jap. Fire Shovels, 5c and 10c
Lid Lifters 5c
Stove Pokers 5c
Zinc Oileloth Binding, pkg. 10c
Stove Brushes 10c
E. Z. Nickel Stove Polish 10c
E. Z. Stove Paste 10c
Stove Pipe Enamel 10c
Mica, 3 sheets for 5c

HINTERSCHIED'S

221-223 W. Milwaukee St.

Cut Flowers For All Occasions.

DOWNS FLORAL CO.

Milton and Prospect Aves.
We make prompt and accurate deliveries.
BOTH PHONES.
Street car passes our door.

Janesville Graduate Nurse's Directory at McCue & Buss

When in need of a Nurse call
Old phone 4303. Now phone 300.

NURSES PROVIDED FOR OUT OF TOWN CASES.

44546

is the lucky number that entitles the holder to a watch. Look over your tickets and see if you have it. The next one will be given away on Saturday evening, Oct. 9. One ticket with every cigar.

Smith's Pharmacy

The Rexall Store,
Kodak and Kodak Supplies.

BASEBALL GAME RESULTS

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Club. W. L. P. C. W. L. P.
Boston 39 41 75 39 68
Chicago 30 45 65 30 56
Cincinnati 37 38 69 37 53
Cleveland 37 38 69 37 53
Detroit 39 51 65 New York 37 37 69
Philadelphia 35 53 62 Cleveland 31 32 46
Boston 38 42 65 Boston 37 38 53
Chicago 37 41 65 Wash. 42 40 53

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
Chicago, 2; Detroit, 2;
St. Louis, 6; Cleveland, 4 (first game);
St. Louis, 1; Cleveland, 3 (second game).
No other games scheduled.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Chicago, 1; Pittsburgh, 4;
Cincinnati, 6; St. Louis, 4 (first game);
Cincinnati, 1; St. Louis, 3 (second game).
No other games scheduled.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

To be able to receive praise or thanks graciously is a fine art and a rare one.

How many people do you know who can respond without any self-consciousness or embarrassment of awkwardness to words of thanks or praise? And are you one of them?

"I had rather not be thanked," we hear someone says and think his attitude very fine and noble.

But is it? Isn't it really much kinder and finer to receive graciously the one return your beneficiary is perhaps able to make you—the expression of his gratitude?

Some people who do not actually run away from thanks have another method of curtailing them. They keep no sort of watch dog with which to ward away any attempts at thanks, some pet formula such as "Don't mention it." "The pleasure is wholly mine," or some other equally impersonal rejoinder.

What is there wrong in that?

Well, simply the fact that these phrases are impersonal. Hand-made things, you know, are never as highly prized as the hand-made articles. For a stranger such phrases might do but to a friend they are almost rude. Forms between friends are bad form.

Another piece of poor taste is to ostentatiously disparage your ability when anyone praises your talent or thanks you for a performance. Remember that in disparaging what they praise you are disparaging their judgment.

I know a girl who is so embarrassed when anyone praises her singing that in her effort not to appear conceited she says, "How absurd, I know you didn't actually enjoy that wretched singing," or "Of course, you don't really mean that," or "Nonsense, I was off the key all the time," or something else equally awkward.

Some people realize it is simply embarrassment. Others are offended at the ungracious reception of their well meant words. It is unfortunate, for like most of us who are trying to make our way in the world, she needs all the friends she can possibly have.

It isn't necessary, of course, to go to the other extreme and chime in with those who praise you. That is as bad as self-disparagement.

I shall never forget hearing a man accept praise in that way once. He had a rather good tenor voice—nothing extraordinary. He had been singing at the request of some friends and they had thanked him and politely praised his voice.

"Yes, I like my voice," he responded slumbering. "It was quite the flattest thing I ever heard."

There is no need to either disparage or praise oneself. Why not say in substance, "I am glad I could give you pleasure."

In fact, if you can really feel that way—and if you can't, you are no true giver—why not in substance receive all praise or thanks that way—"I am glad I could do it."

It is the only really gracious way.

ALL ABOUT THE HOUSE

Be sure and make plenty of pickles. The desire for sweets is no greater than the desire for sour and the well balanced preserve closet will have no more of one or the other. As a relish with meat try:

Chopped Pickle Relish.—One small cabbage, one bunch of celery, one quart of onions, one quart of green tomatoes, four red peppers, and one quart of pickled cucumbers. Chop and let stand overnight with one cup of salt. Drain as dry as possible next morning. Prepare a pottle of two quarts of vinegar, four tablespoomfuls of dry mustard, one tablespoomful of tumeric, three cups of granulated sugar and four tablespoomfuls of flour. The dry articles must be mixed to a paste with a little cold vinegar before adding to the rest. Roll for a few minutes to thicken, add the well drained mixture and boil for five minutes. Keep in stone jars, well covered.

Small fruit jars carefully labeled are ideal spice jars, as the contents are only protected from the air, but are easily watched. Nothing is more irritating than to find a spice jar empty just when it is needed.

A roll of adhesive tape in one of the latest additions to the housewife's cupboard of "little helps." Cut in strips, it makes easily applied labels for the fruit jars. As a quick mender for an unsightly tear it is a friend indeed, and as a strengthenner for a wrist strained by much lifting during the preserving season it does good service. If kept in a closed jar it will keep in good order for a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Birmingham and a party of Chicago automobile stopped in the city Saturday on their way to Madison and northern points.

Mrs. G. A. Alcock of Stoughton was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Charles McNeil and son, Edward, of Clinton, who have been visiting in the city, returned to their home yesterday.

Mrs. G. Morse of Milwaukee, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Yahn, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Wooster and Mr. and Mrs. A. Martin of Whitewater, spent Saturday in the city.

Mrs. O. H. Fotheras has returned from a visit in Milwaukee.

Mrs. H. C. Hooker of Brodhead was in the city Saturday.

The Abbot Mary and Martha Klingbeil spent Sunday with their parents in Sheboygan.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Birmingham and a party of Chicago automobile stopped in the city Saturday on their way to Madison and northern points.

Mrs. G. A. Alcock of Stoughton was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Charles McNeil and son, Edward, of Clinton, who have been visiting in the city, returned to their home yesterday.

Mrs. G. Morse of Milwaukee, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Yahn, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Wooster and Mr. and Mrs. A. Martin of Whitewater, spent Saturday in the city.

The Misses Durst of New Glarus were Janeville visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder and son, Clifford, attended a party at the home

Mechanical Horses.
In training its cavalry recruits the German army is making use of a machine driven by electricity, in which all the movements of horses are simulated.

Buy it in Janeville.

It's Absolutely True

That coffee drinking gets on the nerves of some persons, upsets the stomach and causes headaches in others.

Quitting coffee and using well-made for ten days tells the tale.

POSTUM

"There's a Reason"

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in every third plg.

POSTUM CEREAL COMPANY

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stanton of Corning street have been spending the past week in Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Elam Coon of Milton Junction were in the city Saturday calling on Janeville friends.

Miss Edna Lewis of Whitewater was the guest of Mrs. R. L. Cary of Yuba street last week.

C. Voglo, who has been running the City meat market on South Main street the past year, has gone to St. Paul, where he will engage in similar business for himself.

Mrs. F. O. Dudley and Mrs. Walter Taylor and daughter, Miss Ethel, returned last evening from a few days' visit in Chicago.

Mrs. W. E. Cronk of Beloit spent Sunday in the city visiting her mother, Mrs. Anna, on South Franklin street.

Dr. and Mrs. Twing Wiggin of Chicago, who have just returned from a trip abroad, are the guests of Mrs. Hiram Merrill of this city. They have just come from New York where they witnessed the Hudson-Pulton celebration.

Stanley G. Dunwiddie spent Sunday in Madison.

J. C. McNaught of Juda was in Janeville, Saturday.

Miss Edna Murdock of North Franklin street, is visiting friends in Kaukauna.

E. A. Moody, Percy Shreve, Mrs. W. F. Blawie, Mrs. E. Van Patten, Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. W. Putter of Evansville, spent Saturday in this city.

Miss Catherine Ellifield left today for a visit in Chicago.

Mrs. C. B. Stoney of Clinton was a Saturday visitor in this city.

Miss Edna Fuller of Delavan was in the city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harris have departed on a trip through the east. They will visit with Mrs. Hugh C. Leighton in Portland, Me.

Lieutenant Governor E. E. Smith and wife of Minneapolis are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Reid.

Miss Catherine Poinier left today for Washington, D. C., to attend the National Cathedral school there.

Mrs. Leon Kirkpatrick is the guest of friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nasset of Cambridge, Wis., were in the city on Saturday.

John L. Wilcox and Orton Suther left last Sunday for South Dakota for a two weeks' hunting trip.

Mrs. J. W. Laughlin has returned home after spending the past week in Chicago.

Mrs. George Woodruff is the guest of Chicago friends for a few days.

Mrs. Norman and daughter of Brodhead spent Saturday in the city.

Mrs. C. C. Devereaux entertained at a bridge party at her home on Terreiro street Saturday afternoon.

Miss Tillie Atgau and Miss Alda Ott of New Glarus were Janeville visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Lavina De Bois Stewart became the bride of Harold G. Shurtliff Saturday.

At the home of Mrs. Sarah E. Schofield, 905 Milton Ave., Miss Lavina De Bois was united in marriage to Harold G. Shurtliff at four o'clock Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Langhlin in the Schofield drawing room which was beautifully decorated with autumn foliage for the occasion. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sarah E. Schofield and well known in the city while the groom is the president of the Shurtliff Mill Co. Immediately after the ceremony a three course luncheon was served to the guests and early in the evening the newly married couple left for Minneapolis on a short wedding trip, after which they will reside with the bride's mother on Milton Ave.

John L. Wilcox and Orton Suther left last Sunday for South Dakota for a two weeks' hunting trip.

Mrs. J. W. Laughlin has returned home after spending the past week in Chicago.

Mrs. O. H. Fotheras has returned from a visit in Milwaukee.

Mrs. H. C. Hooker of Brodhead was in the city Saturday.

The Abbot Mary and Martha Klingbeil spent Sunday with their parents in Sheboygan.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Birmingham and a party of Chicago automobile stopped in the city Saturday on their way to Madison and northern points.

Mrs. G. A. Alcock of Stoughton was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Charles McNeil and son, Edward, of Clinton, who have been visiting in the city, returned to their home yesterday.

Mrs. G. Morse of Milwaukee, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Yahn, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Wooster and Mr. and Mrs. A. Martin of Whitewater, spent Saturday in the city.

Mrs. O. H. Fotheras has returned from a visit in Milwaukee.

Mrs. H. C. Hooker of Brodhead was in the city Saturday.

The Abbot Mary and Martha Klingbeil spent Sunday with their parents in Sheboygan.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder and son, Clifford, attended a party at the home

LEAVES A FORTUNE

TO NINE LEGATEES

Mrs. Lavina De Bois Stewart became the bride of Harold G. Shurtliff Saturday.

At the home of Mrs. Sarah E. Schofield, 905 Milton Ave., Miss Lavina De Bois was united in marriage to Harold G. Shurtliff at four o'clock Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Langhlin in the Schofield drawing room which was beautifully decorated with autumn foliage for the occasion. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sarah E. Schofield and well known in the city while the groom is the president of the Shurtliff Mill Co. Immediately after the ceremony a three course luncheon was served to the guests and early in the evening the newly married couple left for Minneapolis on a short wedding trip, after which they will reside with the bride's mother on Milton Ave.

John L. Wilcox and Orton Suther left last Sunday for South Dakota for a two weeks' hunting trip.

Mrs. J. W. Laughlin has returned home after spending the past week in Chicago.

Mrs. O. H. Fotheras has returned from a visit in Milwaukee.

Mrs. H. C. Hooker of Brodhead was in the city Saturday.

The Abbot Mary and Martha Klingbeil spent Sunday with their parents in Sheboygan.

</

Emergency Teeth

I make two sets of teeth for lots of people who are wise enough to have the second set in reserve for any accident or unexpected happening to their regular set.

One man lost his teeth out of a car window—"Snapped". One party lost his over the side of a boat.

It takes time to get a new set made. How nice to have a second set to slip right into the mouth, and be able to keep smiling.

I put in a new set this forenoon that was so tight a fit that I could hardly pull them out.

I have had twenty years' experience in making teeth.

DR. F. T. RICHARDS

GRADUATE DENTIST.
Office over Hall & Sayles Jewelry store
Janeville, Wis.

When It Comes To Dress Cleaning

MEMORIALS TO B. F. DUNWIDDIE

PRESENTED BY ASSOCIATES THIS AFTERNOON.

JUDGE WINSLOW SPOKE

And R. D. Kirkland, Judge Rogers,
Burr Jones, And Others Were Heard From—Calendar
Called.

Tributes to the memory of the late Judge Benjamin F. Dunwiddie were offered by a member of the supreme court and attorneys from every county in the circuit at the court house this afternoon. Burr Jones of Madison and Hon. A. J. Schmitz of Milwaukee were unable to be present and sent letters which were read by Mr.

for the season's games. This season promises to be a successful one, even more so than the last one, and the attendance will no doubt be considerably increased.

ROOMS OF BAPTIST CHURCH REDEDICATED ON RALLY DAY

Special Exercises Held Yesterday at Sunday School—New Officers of S. S. Installed.

The rooms of the Baptist church, which were recently rearranged and redecorated were rededicated at the Sunday school services yesterday. Deacon A. E. Hall, one of the board of trustees of the church, delivered the dedicatory address. The new officers of the Sunday school—F. E. Saderer, superintendent; J. M. Hinchcliff and Roy Curier, assistants; and Ernest Clark, chorister—were also installed in office. Four hundred and sixty-one people were present at their Rally Day exercises yesterday.

GO TO PHOENIX FOR WINTER; HAVE SOLD HOME IN CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Helms Leave the Fourteenth For Phoenix,
Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Helms leave on Thursday of next week for Phoenix, Arizona, where they will spend the winter. Mr. Helms has disposed of his home, 330 Buff street, to O. D. Antisdel, and plans to build on his ten-acre orange plantation near Phoenix this fall. They will return to Janeville in the spring. Mrs. M. A. Libbey, aged seventy-five, a mother of Mrs. Helms, who has been visiting here after a trip to New Hampshire, her old home, will accompany them on their westward journey.

CURRENT ITEMS,

Men's Club Meeting: The Men's Club of St. Peter's English Lutheran church will meet in the church parlor at 7:30 Tuesday evening to organize for the winter, elect officers and plan for the season's work.

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Congregational church are requested to meet in the church parlor at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Important business is to come before the meeting.

The Woman's Foreign Mission Circle of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet in the church on Wednesday at 2:30 in the afternoon. Subject—The Gospel in Italy, first chapter in the new book, "The Gospel in Latin Lands," Mrs. Floyd Hurd, leader. At roll call—Heroes and Martyrs of the Church in Italy. This will be the annual election of officers. Let every member be present.

Auto Parties: Mr. and Mrs. William G. Westfield and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Cupples of Ft. Atkinson composed an automobile party which was registered at the Grand Hotel last night. Three other parties—J. P. and G. J. Carmichael of Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Carmichael and Mrs. A. L. Caulfield of Rockford; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Babcock of Clinton, Ill., and F. E. Babcock of Fond du Lac; and W. J. Knight, R. F. Holcombe, Ed. Carroll, and R. A. Cotter, all of Monroe—were registered at the same place yesterday afternoon.

The calendar was to be called late this afternoon.

Chief Justice Whalen's tribute was as follows:

If the Court please—

I knew Judge Dunwiddie intimately from early manhood and my respect for his character has impelled me to attend these exercises in order that I might add my imperfect but heartfelt tribute to the generous tributes of the bar.

I met him first at the law school of our state university, where we were both preparing for our life's work. He was somewhat my senior and had, as I remember, completed his course in the college of letters and science, having worked his way through his own exertions. He made his own way also in the law school by teaching several hours a day in a business college. Thus he had little time for recreation, and less for mere social pleasures. He was necessarily very busy, too much so probably for his own physical welfare. Thus also he was somewhat slow in making acquaintances; but as the months went on his classmates appreciated more and more the ability and sterling virtues which were possessed by the quiet and busy student, whose time was too fully occupied for play.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work, which stood him in better stead. He made way slowly but very surely. He possessed also absolute integrity and honesty, both of mind and heart. Not mere bumptious honesty, but a determination to do the right as he saw it at all times and under all circumstances, not because it was the best policy, but because neither his temperament nor his religious convictions would permit him to do otherwise. He carried those qualities through his life; he became an able lawyer, a safe counselor, a trusted adviser, and gained the implicit confidence and respect of his brethren at the bar, as well as of the community at large; he filled in all ways the ideal of the good citizen. The keynote of his character was his unquestioned integrity. He was a good man. Walter Scott, upon his deathbed, said to his son-in-law, Lockhart: "He is a good man, John; that is all that will give you any comfort when you come to lie here." Our departed friend had this comfort, and his atleken family will always have it. In the words of the Hebrew prophet: "He did justly, he loved mercy, and he walked humbly with his God." What can be said of a man better than this? What is more to be desired? When this can be truthfully said of any person, then indeed all mere infinities of temper may be forgotten and forgotten, and only the virtues to be remembered, even as though they were inscribed upon memory's wall in letters of living light.

He was not brilliant, nor did he possess what is called genius, but he had the more solid qualities of industry and a great capacity for continuous and regular work

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, October 4, 1869.—Meteor.—Last evening about 8 o'clock a bright meteor was seen in the northwest heavens. Its course was to the south and when, seemingly about four degrees from the horizon, it exploded, giving for two or three seconds, an evening twilight, leaving in its train a bright but hazy shadow, some four degrees in length, which ended up in the shape of a figure 3 or letter S, and faded away.

Dead Body Found in the River.—About three o'clock this afternoon a boy discovered the body of a man in the river near Kirk's cooper shop. He informed the workmen in the shop and they at once notified the authorities, who took the man out of the water, and proceeded at once to hold an inquest. The deceased was probably 40 or 45 years of age, dressed in the clothes of a laborer, and had evidently been in the water some time. There were some bruises on his face, but they may have been made by contact with sticks or stones as he floated down the river. An inquest is being held as we go to press.

A Disgraceful Row.—A row originated in Ed. Connell's saloon yesterday, which resulted in a brutal assault upon a man on the street, named Thill. From what we can learn of the affair it would appear that a fellow named James Patten considered himself insulted by some of the company in the saloon, and proposed to propitiate his wounded honor by hammering somebody. He therefore came out on the street, and, supposing Thill to be the man he was after, "went for him" and bruised his face up badly. Somehow Peter Myers supposed Thill was an intruder on his premises and he concluded not to throw brick bats, one striking Thill on the head and the other in the back.

Between the two Thill got rather roughly handled. A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of Patten but he has not been found yet, Connell and Myers were brought before the Police Court this morning and their examination postponed. It was a nice, pretty little affair, for any day in the week, but an especially good thing for Sunday. Nothing conduced so much to low taxes, good order and quietness, and a healthy moral tone over the left-as foul oil.

BRODHEAD.

Brodhead, Oct. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Clawson left Brodhead on Saturday for an absence of some time. Mrs. Clawson goes to Oshkosh for a visit of some length with her daughter, Mrs. O. C. Walte and family, while Mr. Clawson takes a busman trip through Pennsylvania and the east.

Mrs. M. Sherb of Durand, was a Bradhead visitor on Friday and Saturday. Mrs. G. H. Christman went Saturday to Beloit for a short visit and from that city went to Elizabeth, Ill., to see her daughter, Mrs. Robert Keenan and family.

Mrs. Ross Sherbourn was here from Albany on Saturday and went to Milwaukee for a few days' stay.

Mrs. Josephine Fitzgerald spent Saturday in Janesville.

Mrs. Livingston spent Saturday in Janesville.

C. J. Stephenson, Mrs. Stephenson and the Misses Spaulding and Partlett were Monroe and Albany visitors on Friday.

Mrs. J. B. Pierce and the baby were passengers to Monroe Saturday, returning over Sunday. Mr. Pierce drove across the country Sunday and joined them in a visit to friends and relatives.

A. A. Gillett of Juda made a short stay in Brodhead on Saturday.

The ideal food for school or workshop is

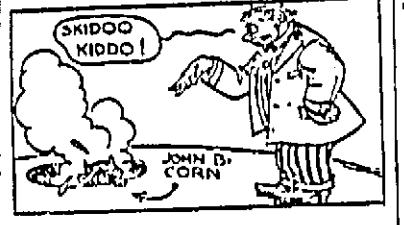

SHREDDED WHEAT

Crisp, delicious shreds of baked wheat—Try it for breakfast with milk or cream.

Talks on Snake Culture

No. 21—Temperance Charlie

The proprietor of Charlie's Place, where the boys spend a lot of money, that they should put in the contribution box for the benefit of the heathen, never takes a drink of anything stronger than distilled water. Charlie has been selling poison of various colors for many years, and the fact that he never consumes any of his own wares ought to suggest things to his customers, but they are usually having such a good time when they are in his Place, that they pay no attention to such details. Why doesn't Charlie take his own medicine? Why doesn't he live up with the boys, and keep his spirits up by pouring the whisky down? Charlie is a wise old boy, and he knows better. He knows that a few drunks makes a fool of a man, and he has no desire to be a fool; he knows that the Jolly Good Fellow is blowing in money that he will need the worst way before long, and Charlie has a fondness for money. Charlie is cold-blooded, and is looking out for himself at all hours of the day. And although he sells the old Jug Juice, he drinks the man with a jug with a bitter loathing. If the Jolly Good Fellow, who stands up to the bar, and calls on everybody to take one on him, and who imagines that he is cutting a great swath—if this Jolly Good Fellow only knew what Charlie really thinks of him, he would shrivel up and die away.

Idle houses are money losing investments. A want ad campaign should keep them rented; it will if you describe them thoroughly and then tell how much the rent is.

The following answers to want ads are on file in this office:

WANTED—Salesman, not older than 40 years; permanent position; salaried commission. Write reference and address. Address G. H. Box 24, Fond du Lac, Wis.

WANTED—First-class dressmaker, Mrs. E. Bernhard, 16 South Franklin St.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Half a double house No. 212 S. Main St.; 8 rooms, bath, furnace, city water, in good repair. Apply John L. Fisher, Hayes Block.

FOR RENT—Small store on Court St., with small apartment above, reasonable rent. Mrs. A. C. Reid.

FOR RENT—2 rooms, modern steam-heated, not in residence district, $25.00 per month. Carter & Morse.

FOR RENT—One lower part of house, Inquiry of Alice Williams, 420 S. Main St., phone 3434.

FOR RENT—A nicely furnished flat; city and soft water; reasonable to the right party. Inquiry 214 West Milwaukee St.

FOR RENT—House and barn, 534 S. Main St., E. F. Pieron.

FOR RENT—Six-room cottage No. 310 Elm St., Gas, city and electric water; newly painted and decorated. Ready Oct. 8. Walter Holmes, 20 S. Main St.

FOR RENT—Two houses, newly papered, good location; one part of the house, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson St., Harry Duvivier.

FOR RENT—Three room flats with bath, steam heat, city water, all modern and well located. Rent reasonable.

FOR RENT—Seven-room house, 221 Washington St. A fine location; rent reasonable.

FOR RENT—Good 3-room flat, No. 7 East Main, all modern and up-to-date. Rent reasonable.

One good room house on S. Washington St.; rent $10.00. Good room house on Prairie Ave., including city water, $12.50 per month.

A good house of 5 rooms; city water, small bath. Rent $10.50, including water.

FOR RENT—Store south of Mill St., new grocery on S. Main St., good location, good condition. For partition call on S. Main St.

FOR RENT—A piano lot, Bowling Alley. Call at once, 13 N. Main St.

FOR RENT—Two young men boarders in private family. Board and room $3.50 per week. New phone 741 black.

FOR RENT—A steady man to care for horses and furnace in return for board and lodgings. Apply "H. H." Gazette.

WANTED—Water rubbers and craters on dining tables. Cheotie-Hollister Furniture Co.

WANTED—Hoses for assembling and shipping department. Permanent position. Colgate Co.

WANTED—How to learn brother trade; few weeks required; best paying work within your town. Can have shop with small capital. Wages $12 to $25 weekly. Wonderful demand for brothers. Catalogue mailed free. Motor Barber College, Chicago, Ill.

WANTED—Gentlemen and wife, tired of boarding, desire to care for furnished house for winter. Satisfaction guaranteed. Address "H. H."

WANTED—Rents to 18 years old to take charge of home. Reply in care of the gazette.

WANTED—Female Help.

A GOOD OFFICE POSITION is open for a reliable bookkeeper; state age and experience. Box 10, gazette.

WANTED—Not energetic girl to clerk in store. Must be experienced. Call R. G. Cook's Candy Palace.

WANTED—At once, experienced cook for small hotel. $7.00 per week and room. Address "Cook," gazette.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. Mrs. Percy Munger, 314 Madison St.

WANTED—Six girls at the Western School to sew on power machines. Apply.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework or house girl. Mrs. Fred Schlesinger, 1902 Milwaukee Ave.

WANTED—Solicitor or salesman, not older than 40 years; permanent position; salary and commission. Write reference and address. Address G. H. Box 24, Fond du Lac, Wis.

WANTED—First-class dressmaker, Mrs. E. Bernhard, 16 South Franklin St.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Half a double house No. 212 S. Main St.; 8 rooms, bath, furnace, city water, in good repair. Apply John L. Fisher, Hayes Block.

FOR RENT—Small store on Court St., with small apartment above, reasonable. Mrs. A. C. Reid.

FOR RENT—2 rooms, modern steam-heated, not in residence district, $25.00 per month. Carter & Morse.

FOR RENT—One lower part of house, Inquiry of Alice Williams, 420 S. Main St., phone 3434.

FOR RENT—A nicely furnished flat; city and soft water; reasonable to the right party. Inquiry 214 West Milwaukee St.

FOR RENT—House and barn, 534 S. Main St., E. F. Pieron.

FOR RENT—Six-room cottage No. 310 Elm St., Gas, city and electric water; newly painted and decorated. Ready Oct. 8. Walter Holmes, 20 S. Main St.

FOR RENT—Two houses, newly papered, good location; one part of the house, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson St., Harry Duvivier.

FOR RENT—Three room flats with bath, steam heat, city water, all modern and well located. Rent reasonable.

FOR RENT—Seven-room house, 221 Washington St. A fine location; rent reasonable.

FOR RENT—Good 3-room flat, No. 7 East Main, all modern and up-to-date. Rent reasonable.

One good room house on S. Washington St.; rent $10.00. Good room house on Prairie Ave., including city water, $12.50 per month.

A good house of 5 rooms; city water, small bath. Rent $10.50, including water.

FOR RENT—Store south of Mill St., new grocery on S. Main St., good location, good condition. For partition call on S. Main St.

FOR RENT—A piano lot, Bowling Alley. Call at once, 13 N. Main St.

FOR RENT—Two young men boarders in private family. Board and room $3.50 per week. New phone 741 black.

FOR RENT—A steady man to care for horses and furnace in return for board and lodgings. Apply "H. H." Gazette.

WANTED—Water rubbers and craters on dining tables. Cheotie-Hollister Furniture Co.

WANTED—Hoses for assembling and shipping department. Permanent position. Colgate Co.

WANTED—How to learn brother trade; few weeks required; best paying work within your town. Can have shop with small capital. Wages $12 to $25 weekly. Wonderful demand for brothers. Catalogue mailed free. Motor Barber College, Chicago, Ill.

WANTED—Gentlemen and wife, tired of boarding, desire to care for furnished house for winter. Satisfaction guaranteed. Address "H. H."

WANTED—Rents to 18 years old to take charge of home. Reply in care of the gazette.

WANTED—Female Help.

A GOOD OFFICE POSITION is open for a reliable bookkeeper; state age and experience. Box 10, gazette.

WANTED—Not energetic girl to clerk in store. Must be experienced. Call R. G. Cook's Candy Palace.

WANTED—At once, experienced cook for small hotel. $7.00 per week and room. Address "Cook," gazette.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. Mrs. Percy Munger, 314 Madison St.

WANTED—Six girls at the Western School to sew on power machines. Apply.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework or house girl. Mrs. Fred Schlesinger, 1902 Milwaukee Ave.

WANTED—At once, experienced cook for small hotel. $7.00 per week and room. Address "Cook," gazette.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. Mrs. Percy Munger, 314 Madison St.

WANTED—Six girls at the Western School to sew on power machines. Apply.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework or house girl. Mrs. Fred Schlesinger, 1902 Milwaukee Ave.

WANTED—At once, experienced cook for small hotel. $7.00 per week and room. Address "Cook," gazette.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. Mrs. Percy Munger, 314 Madison St.

WANTED—Six girls at the Western School to sew on power machines. Apply.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework or house girl. Mrs. Fred Schlesinger, 1902 Milwaukee Ave.

WANTED—At once, experienced cook for small hotel. $7.00 per week and room. Address "Cook," gazette.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. Mrs. Percy Munger, 314 Madison St.

WANTED—Six girls at the Western School to sew on power machines. Apply.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework or house girl. Mrs. Fred Schlesinger, 1902 Milwaukee Ave.

WANTED—At once, experienced cook for small hotel. $7.00 per week and room. Address "Cook," gazette.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. Mrs. Percy Munger, 314 Madison St.

WANTED—Six girls at the Western School to sew on power machines. Apply.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework or house girl. Mrs. Fred Schlesinger, 1902 Milwaukee Ave.

WANTED—At once, experienced cook for small hotel. $7.00 per week and room. Address "Cook," gazette.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. Mrs. Percy Munger, 314 Madison St.

WANTED—Six girls at the Western School to sew on power machines. Apply.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework or house girl. Mrs. Fred Schlesinger, 1902 Milwaukee Ave.

WANTED—At once, experienced cook for small hotel. $7.00 per week and room. Address "Cook," gazette.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. Mrs. Percy Munger, 314 Madison St.

WANTED—Six girls at the Western School to sew on power machines. Apply.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework or house girl. Mrs. Fred Schlesinger, 1902 Milwaukee Ave.

WANTED—At once, experienced cook for small hotel. $7.00 per week and room. Address "Cook," gazette.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. Mrs. Percy Munger, 314 Madison St.

WANTED—Six girls at the Western School to sew on power machines. Apply.

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework or house girl. Mrs. Fred Schlesinger, 1902 Milwaukee Ave.

WANTED—At once, experienced cook for small hotel. $7.00 per week and

CHAPTER XIII.

The millionaire did things handsomely. He offered to motor his party to Venice, and as Margaret declined, because motoring was bad for her voice, he telegraphed for a comfortable special carriage, and took his friends down by railroad, and they were all very luxuriously comfortable.

Kralinsky was not on board the yacht when they came alongside at sunset in two gondolas, following the steam-launch which carried the load of luggage and the two maid-servants.

Stomp led the way, and Mr. Van Torp took the three ladies to their cabins; first, Mrs. Rushmore, who was surprised and delighted by the rich and gay appearance of hers, for it was entirely decorated in pink and gold.

On the writing-table stood tall-gilt vase full of immense pink roses, with stems nearer four feet long than three. Mrs. Rushmore admired them very much.

"How did you know that I love roses above all other flowers?" she asked. "My dear Mr. Van Torp, you are a wizard, I'm sure!"

Lady Maud and Margaret entered, and kept up a polite little chorus of admiration; but they both felt uneasy as to what they might find in their respective cabins, for Margaret hated pink, and Lady Maud detested gilding, and neither of them was especially fond of roses. They left Mrs. Rushmore very happy in her quarters and went on. Lady Maud's turn came next, and she began to understand, when she saw a quantity of sweet wood violets on her table, just loosened, in an old Murano-glass beaker.

"Thank you," she said, bending to smell them. "How kind of you!"

There was not a trace of gilding or pink silk. The cabin was paneled and fitted in a rare natural wood of a creamy-white tusk.

"Dog pardon, my lady," said Stomp, "This and Miss Donne's cabin communicate by this door, and the door oft goes to the dressing-room. Each cabin has one quite independent, and this bell rings the pantry, my lady, and this one rings Miss Donne's maid's cabin, as I understand that your ladyship has not brought her own maid with her."

"Very nice," said Lady Maud, smelling the violets again.

Stomp threw open the door of communication to the cabin he had prepared for the prima donna. The two cabins occupied the whole bow of the vessel, excepting the six-foot gangway on each side, and no sea was one of the largest yachts afloat at the time, there was no lack of room.

"Carnations, at this time of year!" cried Margaret, seeing half an armful of her favorite dark red ones, in a silver wine-color before the mirror. "You really seem to know everything! Thank you so much!"

She buried her handsome face in the splendid flowers and drew in a deep, warm breath full of their sumptuous perfume, the spicy scent of a linden clove-tree under a tropical sun.

"Thank you again!" she said enthusiastically. "Thank you for everything, the delightful journey, and this lovely room, and the carnations!"

She stood up suddenly to her height, in sheer pleasure, and held out her hand to him. He pressed it quietly, and smiled.

"Do as you would be done by," he said. "That's the company's rule."

She laughed at the allusion to their agreement, of which Lady Maud knew nothing, for they had determined to keep it secret for the present.

Mr. Van Torp had not found an opportunity of speaking to Lady Maud alone, but he wished her to know when Kralinsky might be expected.

"Stomp," he said, before leaving the

She Buried Her Handsome Face In the Splendid Flowers.

Van Torp and his man departed, just as Potts appeared, accompanied by a very neat-looking English stewardess in a smart white cap. Lady Maud was unusually silent, but she smiled pleasantly at what Margaret said, and the latter made up her mind to drown her anger against Logothetti, and at the same time be avenged on him, in an orgy of luxurious comfort, sun-air, and sunshine. The capacity of a perfectly healthy and successful singer for enjoying everything, from a halfpenny bun and a drive in a hammock to a millionaire's yacht and the most expensive flat of the land, or sea, has never been measured. And if they do have terrible fits of temper now and then, who shall blame them? They are always sorry for it, because it is bad for the voice.

Mr. Van Torp reached his quarters, and prepared to scrub and draw comfortably after a week at Bayreuth and a railroad journey.

Lady Maud did not begin to dress at once, as there was plenty of time before dinner; she left the stewardess to unpack her things, and came out upon the six-foot gangway outside her cabin to breathe the air, for it was warm. The city lay half a mile away, in the afterglow of the sunset.

But she felt none of that healthy pleasure which a lovely sight naturally gave her. She was at a crisis of life, and the exquisite evening scene was the battlefield of a coming struggle, with herself, or with another, she hardly knew. In half an hour, or in an hour, at most, she was to sit at table with a man she fully believed to be the husband for whom she had been wearing mourning, out of mere docility, but with the profound inward satisfaction of being free.

She had already come to the conclusion that if Kralinsky was really Leven, the latter had seized the opportunity offered him by his own supposed death to disappear from St. Petersburg, and had taken another name.

Leven had been a ruined man when he had tried to divorce her; when he died, or disappeared, he left nothing but debts, which were extinguished with him, for no one attempted to make his widow responsible for them, since there was no estate and she had no fortune beyond the allowance her father made her. Lord Credinore was far from being a rich peer, too, and what he gave her was not much, although it would more than suffice for her simple wants, now that she intended to live with him again.

No other remedy can be compared with Rexall Orderlies for the easy, pleasant and successful treatment of constipation. The active medicinal ingredient of this remedy, which is odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other valuable ingredients, it forms a preparation which is incomparable as a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, and are notable for their gentle and agreeable action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience, and may be taken at any time, day or night.

We particularly recommend Rexall Orderlies for children and for delicate or aged persons, because they do not contain anything injurious. Unlike other preparations, they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the habits acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics, and hard physic, and remove the causes of constipation or irregular bowel action that are not of surgical variety.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. We know of nothing that will do you so much good. They are prepared in tablet form in two sizes: 36 tablets 25 cents, and 12 tablets 10 cents. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Janesville only at our store.—The Rexall Store, Smith's Pharmacy.

as on an ocean liner. The Lancashire Lass, with her single yellow funnel, one short signal mast, her turreted wheelhouse, and her generally business-like appearance, looked more like a cross between a fast modern cruiser and an ocean "greyhound" than like a private yacht. She even had a couple of quick-firing guns mounted just above her rail.

Lady Maud looked at the gondola, and as it came still nearer, she saw that it brought only one passenger, and that he had a fair beard. She quietly opened her cabin door, and went in to dress for dinner.

Meanwhile Mr. Van Torp had completed his toilet, and sent for the captain.

"I suppose you're ready at any moment, captain?" inquired the millionaire.

"Yes, sir. The pilot is on board, and the gentleman you expected is just coming alongside."

"Then you can start now," said the owner, after a moment's thought.

"Where are we bound, sir?"

"Oh, well, I don't know. I wanted to say a few words about that, captain. Do you happen to know anything about a yacht called the Erima, belonging to a Mr. Logothetti, a Greek gentleman who lives in Paris?"

"Yes, sir," answered Capt. Brown, for it was a part of his business to read the yachting news. "She was at Cowes when we sailed. She was reported the other day from Gibraltar as having entered the Mediterranean after taking fresh provisions, owner and party on board. There is no further word of her."

"Well," said Mr. Van Torp, "I have an idea she's gone to Naples, but I want you to find her right away wherever she is, owner and party on board. That's all, captain. If you happen to see her anywhere, you just come and tell me if I'm alone, and if I'm not, why some one of your young men to say you want to know something—anything you happen to think of, and I'll come to your room and tell you what to do. See? That's all, and now let's start."

"All right, sir."

When the party assembled in the deck saloon for dinner, Lady Maud was missing. Stomp, who did not intend that his master should dine without his personal attention, no matter how much the chief steward might object to his presence, approached Mr. Van Torp and whispered something. Lady Maud begged that the party would sit down without her, and she would join them in a moment.

So they took their places, and the vacan^t one was on the owner's right, between him and the prima donna.

"You see," said Mr. Van Torp, explaining to Mrs. Rushmore, which was wholly unnecessary, "we are Americans, and this ship is America, so the English guest goes first."

But Mrs. Rushmore knew these things, for she was used to handling them in numbers; and the little house and the middle-sized ones were very particular about their places at table, but the great big ones do not care who shall blame them? They are always sorry for it, because it is bad for the voice.

Mr. Van Torp reached his quarters, and prepared to scrub and draw comfortably after a week at Bayreuth and a railroad journey.

Lady Maud did not begin to dress at once, as there was plenty of time before dinner; she left the stewardess to unpack her things, and came out upon the six-foot gangway outside her cabin to breathe the air, for it was warm. The city lay half a mile away, in the afterglow of the sunset.

But she felt none of that healthy pleasure which a lovely sight naturally gave her. She was at a crisis of life, and the exquisite evening scene was the battlefield of a coming struggle, with herself, or with another, she hardly knew. In half an hour, or in an hour, at most, she was to sit at table with a man she fully believed to be the husband for whom she had been wearing mourning, out of mere docility, but with the profound inward satisfaction of being free.

She had already come to the conclusion that if Kralinsky was really Leven, the latter had seized the opportunity offered him by his own supposed death to disappear from St. Petersburg, and had taken another name.

Leven had been a ruined man when he had tried to divorce her; when he died, or disappeared, he left nothing but debts, which were extinguished with him, for no one attempted to make his widow responsible for them, since there was no estate and she had no fortune beyond the allowance her father made her. Lord Credinore was far from being a rich peer, too, and what he gave her was not much, although it would more than suffice for her simple wants, now that she intended to live with him again.

No other remedy can be compared with Rexall Orderlies for the easy, pleasant and successful treatment of constipation. The active medicinal ingredient of this remedy, which is odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other valuable ingredients, it forms a preparation which is incomparable as a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, and are notable for their gentle and agreeable action. They do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the habits acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics, and hard physic, and remove the causes of constipation or irregular bowel action that are not of surgical variety.

We particularly recommend Rexall Orderlies for children and for delicate or aged persons, because they do not contain anything injurious.

If you suffer from constipation in any form whatever, acute or chronic, we will guarantee to supply you medicine that we honestly believe will effect permanent relief if taken with regularity and according to directions for a reasonable length of time.

Should the medicine fail to benefit you to your entire satisfaction we promise that it shall cost you nothing.

No other remedy can be compared with Rexall Orderlies for the easy, pleasant and successful treatment of constipation. The active medicinal ingredient of this remedy, which is odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other valuable ingredients, it forms a preparation which is incomparable as a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, and are notable for their gentle and agreeable action. They do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the habits acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics, and hard physic, and remove the causes of constipation or irregular bowel action that are not of surgical variety.

But if Leven had not been killed, and had turned into Kralinsky, he now had plenty of ready money, though it was not easy to guess how he had obtained possession of a quantity of valuable Asiatic rubies within the few weeks that had elapsed between his supposed destruction by the bomb and the date of Van Torp's transaction with him in New York. That was a mystery. So was his possible acquaintance, or connection, with the eastern girl who was looking for him, if there was a shadow of truth in Logothetti's story. Lady Maud did not believe there was, and she felt morally sure that the tale had evolved itself out of the Greek's fertile brain, as a fantastic explanation of his atrocious conduct.

While she was thinking over these matters and rehearsing in her thoughts the scene that was before her, she saw a gondola making straight for the yacht across the fast fading green of the lagoon that lay between the vessel and the Piazzetta. It came nearer, and she drew back from the rail against her cabin door, under the shadow of the promenade deck, which extended over the gangway and was supported by stanchions.

COOK ACQUIESCES IN PROPOSITION

IS WILLING AMERICAN TRIBUNALS SHOULD EXAMINE RECORDS.

EXPLORER IS VERY FRANK

Proposition That Copenhagen University Be Asked to Waive Its Claim of Priority Regarding Data Is Acceptable to Him.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Dr. Frederick Cook will acquiesce in the proposition that the University of Copenhagen shall be asked to waive its claim to a prior examination of his data in order that American geographic societies and other scientific bodies in this country may be able to review his records. The arctic explorer made this announcement last night just after his arrival from New York to deliver his lecture.

He said he would be satisfied to have the decisions of all these tribunals unheeded simultaneously. Cook is Frank.

Frankness characterized Dr. Cook's answers to every question asked by newspaper men, although the explorer added but little to what he already had said and published since he returned to civilization. When asked if he would in the future fit up an expedition to go to the south pole Dr. Cook said he was not yet prepared to answer on that point, but he added that discovery of the south pole would be rendered much easier than the north pole, and would be attended by less dangerous risks. He pointed out that a probable route to the south pole would be along stretches of land on which stations might be established, and that this would mean a quicker discovery.

Dr. Cook laughingly declared, in answer to a question, that he did not at this time feel any earnest desire to return to the north pole.

Big Crowd Greets Explorer.

An enthusiastic crowd of several thousand people greeted Dr. Cook upon his arrival at the Union station, and the throng in their eagerness to see or get near him, were kept back with difficulty by several score of police and detectives. Several times while passing through the station shed the explorer was tossed about rather roughly as he was wedged through the crowds, and he expressed a feeling of relief when finally he reached the automobile.

Lack of Official Courtesies.

At the station there was a conspicuous lack of official courtesies to the explorer. None of the government or scientific officials were present to welcome him, nor were any civic bodies represented.

While Dr. Cook was being escorted through the station his identity was mistaken by a policeman, who in trying to keep a passage clear was struck by some one from behind just as Dr. Cook was approaching. The policeman wheeled about with lifted club and was about to strike Dr. Cook, thinking he was the offender, when he discovered his error.

Insult to Wife Causes Tragedy.

Peru, Ind., Oct. 4.—Edward Dunton shot Samuel Williams seven times and mortally wounded him at McGrawsville in a Pennsylvania railroad camp yesterday afternoon, because the latter insulted the former's wife.

Pope Is Indisposed.

Rome, Oct. 4.—The Pope is suffering from a recurrence of the gout. Although the attack is slight, the pope's doctors have insisted upon complete rest, and the audiences have been suspended.

When the army people returned the girl was nearly dead from suffocation, but was soon resuscitated. Examining physicians report that other indignities were perpetrated than those mentioned.

Insult to Wife Causes Tragedy.

Peru, Ind., Oct. 4.—Edward Dunton shot Samuel Williams seven times and mortally wounded him at McGrawsville in a Pennsylvania railroad camp yesterday afternoon, because the latter insulted the former's wife.

LAW PROVED TO BE A SUCCESS.

Oklahoma's Bank Guarantee Act Saves Banking Institution.

New York, Oct. 4.—The Oklahoma law guaranteeing bank depositors has been found to work successfully in the instance of the Columbia Bank and Trust Company, which failed for more than $3,000,000, according to a dispatch received from A. M. Young, Oklahoma bank commissioner. Mr. Young telegraphs:

"The Oklahoma banking law is a complete success, even against the persistent opposition of a strong element of the other class of bankers. We adjust the affairs of an embarrassed state bank with perfect ease in a very few days and with no public clamor whatever."

"Everybody is in good humor and conditions are normal. Other state banks are quiet and gaining in deposits."

AVIATION WEEK IS CONCLUDED.

Aerist Latham Makes Sensational Flight But Is Disqualified.

Johannisthal, Germany, Oct. 4.—Aviation week was brought to an end before a very large crowd by sensational flight after sunset by Hubert Latham. After three failures Latham made an easy start, but it was two minutes after sunset, and although he reached a height officially estimated at 580 feet, 20 feet higher than Bouglion's record, he was disqualified.

If you are suffering from any of these ailments, don't give up hope until you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. She has guided thousands to health, free of charge.

The best advertising never argues, it declares! To harangue is to beware; to argue is to arouse comriveness.

Copyright 1900—Washburn-Crosby Co., Minneapolis, Minn.

TODAY'S CHICAGO MARKETS.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Chicago, Oct. 4.
Cattle receipts, 28,000.
Market, generally steady.
Heeves, 4.10@8.30.
Texas steers, 3.85@5.10.
Western steers, 4.00@7.00.
Stockers and feeders, 3.15@5.25.
Cows and heifers, 2.10@4.00.
Calves, 7.00@9.00.
Hogs
Receipts, 24,000.
Market, steady.
Light, 7.50@8.25.
Mixed, 7.00@8.40.
Heavy, 7.50@8.30.
Lamb, 7.50@7.75.
Gland to choice heavy, 7.75@8.40.
Pigs, 6.30@7.30.
Hulk of hams, 7.00@8.25.
Sheep
Receipts, 35,000.
Market, steady.
Native, 2.65@3.00.
Western, 2.50@3.50.
Yearling, 4.50@4.50.
Lambs, 4.25@7.50.
Western lambs, 4.50@7.50.
Wheat

Dec.—Opening, 1.00@1.04; high, 1.00%; low, 99%; closing, 99%@1.00 asked.

May—Opening, 1.02@1.04; high, 1.02%; low, 1.01%@1.02 asked; closing, 1.02% asked.

Closing—72@73.
Dec.—70@73.

Barley
Closing—50@66.
Corn

May—50%.
July—50%.

Oct.—50%.

Dec.—57%.

Oats

May—41@42@4%.

Oct.—48@49@5@5%.

Dec.—39@41%.

Poultry

Turkeys—15@16.

Springers—13@14.

Chickens—13.

Butter

Creamery—$14@29.

Dairy—22@26.

Eggs

Eggs—18.

THE JANESEVILLE MARKETS.

Janeville, Wisc., Sept. 28, 1900.

Fed.

Bear Corn—$18.00@$18.50.

Corn Meal—$1.40@$1.45 per 100 lbs.

Feed Corn and Oats—$28.

Standard Middlings—$25@$28.

Oil Meal—$1.00 per 100 lbs.

Oats, Hay, Straw.

Oats—$8@9@10c.

Hay—$10.00@$11 per ton.

Straw—$3.50@$4.50.

Rye and Barley.

Rye—70c for 60 lbs.

Barley—45c@50c bu.

Eggs—18.

Elgin, Ill., Sept. 28.—Dutter—30c.

Meal for week, 67.200 lbs.

Butter and Eggs.

Creamery Butter—$10@12.

Fresh Butter—$10@12.

Eggs—Fresh—20c@25c.

Vegetables.

New Potatoes—4c.

Cabbages—25c@40c.

Hog—Different grades—7c@7½c.

Pigs—4½ lbs, alvyn.

Steers and Cows—$1.50@$4.50.

Sticks and Cows—$1.50@$4.50.

Aero Plane Contests Friday.

Friday will witness a series of aero plane contests in which some startling results are anticipated. Half a dozen inventors of the United States have signified their intention to participate. Prizes of $1,000 and a gold medal and $500 and a silver medal will be given to the operators of the machines which make the longest flights out from and back to a starting square 200 feet in dimensions.

The street pageant this day will be a combined educational, historical and military parade in which students, floats and auto and national soldiers will appear.

Saturday's program includes a race for dirigible balloons with Baldwin, Henchey and Kaubensieke as the chief contestants; the release of the two score unguided spherical balloons of 3,000 cubic feet capacity; a parade of 200 automobiles and the dedication of "Fairground," a new public park.

Two Killed—Eight Injured.

Broken Axle Upsets Street Car—Passenger Caught in Wreckage.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 4.—Two men were killed and eight other passengers seriously injured, three of them probably fatally, in a street car accident here. The dead are James Duffy, aged 26 years, and Martin O'Rourke, aged 35 years.

The accident occurred in the fashionable residence section of the East end on the Butler and Negley avenue division of the Pittsburg Railways Company. While a car on this line was rounding a corner at a fair rate of speed one of the axles broke. The car swerved around and upset, the dead and injured being caught in the wreckage. All the victims were passengers.

French Runner Collapses.

Montreal, Oct. 4.—Henry St. Yves, the famous French long-distance runner, collapsed in the twenty-third mile of a race here. Physicians declared that his heart was affected and that he probably will be unable to run again.

Millionaire Philanthropist Dead.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 4.—Thomas H. Swope, millionaire and philanthropist, died suddenly at his home here last night following a stroke of apoplexy. He was 81 years old.

An advertising writer who cannot stick to the truth is wasting his energies in so humiliating a profession. He should become a press agent.

The best advertising is naked truth propelled by just enough wording to forcibly convey the idea.

ST. LOISENFETE;
ALL THE BELLS RINGCELEBRATES CENTENNIAL OF
THE FOUNDATION OF
THE CITY.

AIR RACES ARE A FEATURE

Water Pageant, Veiled Prophet's Parade, Banquets and Appearances by Dr. Cook Also Are on the Program for the Week.

St. Louis, Oct. 4.—Petes and festy. It is incident to the celebration of the one hundred anniversary of the founding of the incorporation of St. Louis is in full swing to-day and will be continued throughout the week.

The festival was ushered in by the concerted ringing of all the bells of 44 churches within the city limits exactly at sunrise yesterday. During the day special services were held in the churches and Sunday schools and tablets marking places of historical interest were unveiled.

Aerial Races on Program.

'Aeroplane flights, distance races between spherical balloons, speed contests by dirigible air craft, a water pageant with four vessels of the United States navy participating, parades, festival banquets, the annual appearance of the mysterious Veiled Prophet and several public appearances by Dr. Frederick A. Cook, arctic explorer, will fill out the week.

Preparations for the big events have been going on for months. An elaborate system of street lighting has been installed, a great court of honor erected and practically the entire city has been decorated with flags and bunting.

Two men—Glenn H. Curtiss, aviator, and Dr. Cook, explorer, will divide the honors to be accorded to individuals.

Mr. Curtiss, beginning Wednesday, will make daily flights, weather permitting, from Art Hill, Forest Park, where a great amphitheater is capable of accommodating scores of thousands of spectators. Dr. Cook will take a prominent part in the festivities presided over by the Veiled Prophet, and will be tendered a public reception.

Two balloon races were on today's program, the first limited to spherical air craft of 40,000 cubic feet capacity or less, and the second to larger balloons up to 80,000 cubic feet.

This evening the streets will be illuminated for the first time, and the opening band concert will be given.

Water and Land Pageants.

To-morrow will be a day of pageantry. The United States torpedo boat flotilla, consisting of the McDonough, Wilkes, Flagg and Thornton, will lead a parade on the Mississippi river, in which scores of motor boats, river packets and other vessels will take part.

The evening will see the Veiled Prophet arrive in greater pomp than has been his wont for years. The floats of his parade will be unusually elaborate, and the ball with which the celebration ends will be one of the most brilliant functions at which he has ever presided.

Wednesday there will be a "municipal pageant."

Thursday 200 floats, representing the industrial progress of the century, will wind through the streets.

Aero Plane Contests Friday.

Friday will witness a series of aero plane contests in which some startling results are anticipated. Half a dozen inventors of the United States have signified their intention to participate. Prizes of $1,000 and a gold medal and $500 and a silver medal will be given to the operators of the machines which make the longest flights out from and back to a starting square 200 feet in dimensions.

The street pageant this day will be a combined educational, historical and military parade in which students, floats and auto and national soldiers will appear.

Saturday's program includes a race for dirigible balloons with Baldwin, Henchey and Kaubensieke as the chief contestants; the release of the two score unguided spherical balloons of 3,000 cubic feet capacity; a parade of 200 automobiles and the dedication of "Fairground," a new public park.

Two Killed—Eight Injured.

Broken Axle Upsets Street Car—Passenger Caught in Wreckage.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 4.—Two men were killed and eight other passengers seriously injured, three of them probably fatally, in a street car accident here. The dead are James Duffy, aged 26 years, and Martin O'Rourke, aged 35 years.

The accident occurred in the fashionable residence section of the East end on the Butler and Negley avenue division of the Pittsburg Railways Company. While a car on this line was rounding a corner at a fair rate of speed one of the axles broke. The car swerved around and upset, the dead and injured being caught in the wreckage. All the victims were passengers.

French Runner Collapses.

Montreal, Oct. 4.—Henry St. Yves, the famous French long-distance runner, collapsed in the twenty-third mile of a race here. Physicians declared that his heart was affected and that he probably will be unable to run again.

Millionaire Philanthropist Dead.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 4.—Thomas H. Swope, millionaire and philanthropist, died suddenly at his home here last night following a stroke of apoplexy. He was 81 years old.

An advertising writer who cannot stick to the truth is wasting his energies in so humiliating a profession. He should become a press agent.

The best advertising is naked truth propelled by just enough wording to forcibly convey the idea.

GOTHAM'S CELEBRATION ENDED,
Night Carnival Parade Closes Hudson-Fulton Gala Week.

New York, Oct. 4.—A night carnival parade of many novel features was the concluding event of Children's Day in the Hudson-Fulton celebration. This pageant was of a generally allegorical and legendary nature. Its bearing upon the events of the week was the representation it gave of arts and ideals that contributed to America's present civilization and culture.

In the planning and construction of these 20 floats the German, Austrian and Swiss societies of the city cooperated with the carnival committee and the Teutonic mythology which the early colonists brought to this part of the country was strongly in evidence. But the classic legends of Greece and Rome were not lacking, and a large number of the floats represented abstract subjects such as Poetry, Music, Art, War, Honor, Good Luck, Freedom and Peace. Timely interest went with the airy scene entitled "The Frost King." "Uncle Sam Receiving the Crowned Heads" concluded the procession and provided great applause.

The Half Moon and the Clermont, with their naval escort, now at anchor at Poughkeepsie, will continue their voyage northward during the week stopping at Kingston, Catskill, Hudson, Albany and Troy, where elaborate local celebrations have been planned.

Special religious services were held in the churches in Yonkers, Poughkeepsie, Kingston, Catskill and Hudson, while several pastors in New York drew lessons from the celebration. During the week a military tournament by United States troops will be held at Camp Oliver on Island park near Albany.

MEXICO FLOOD VICTIMS IN WANT

Relief Work Is Being Continued by American Consuls.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The campaign against the suffering of the Mexican flood victims is just beginning. The relief work is being continued under the direction of American consuls, according to a dispatch received at the state department from Consul General Hanna, at Monterey. Frost has made its appearance in some of the stricken districts and has injured the corn crop, which have been reduced 50 per cent, by it, and many of the rural districts will need outside assistance until new crops can be raised.

Mr. Hanna suggests that Iowa and the corn-growing states each send a carload of corn in bags.

Duchess de Chaulnes Reaches America.

New York, Oct. 4.—Accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Theodore P. Shonts and her sister Marguerite, Duchess de Chaulnes, formerly Miss Theodore Shonts, arrived in New York on the steamer George Washington. With her was her ten-month-old son, the little duke. This is the duchess' first visit home after the death of her husband in Paris.

Prof. Harris Found Guilty.

Warrenton, Va., Oct. 4.—Prof. J. D. Harris, principal of the Warrenton high school, who last April shot and killed William A. Thompson, associate editor of the Warrenton Virginian, on the streets of this place, was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter. Punishment was fixed at four years in the penitentiary.

Aero Plane Contests Friday.

Friday will witness a series of aero plane contests in which some startling results are anticipated. Half a dozen inventors of the United States have signified their intention to participate. Prizes of $1,000 and a gold medal and $500 and a silver medal will be given to the operators of the machines which make the longest flights out from and back to a starting square 200 feet in dimensions.

The street pageant this day will be a combined educational, historical and military parade in which students, floats and auto and national soldiers will appear.

Saturday's program includes a race for dirigible balloons with Baldwin, Henchey and Kaubensieke as the chief contestants; the release of the two score unguided spherical balloons of 3,000 cubic feet capacity; a parade of 200 automobiles and the dedication of "Fairground," a new public park.

Two Killed—Eight Injured.

Broken Axle Upsets Street Car—Passenger Caught in Wreckage.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 4.—Two men were killed and eight other passengers seriously injured, three of them probably fatally, in a street car accident here. The dead are James Duffy, aged 26 years, and Martin O'Rourke, aged 35 years.

The accident occurred in the fashionable residence section of the East end on the Butler and Negley avenue division of the Pittsburg Railways Company. While a car on this line was rounding a corner at a fair rate of speed one of the axles broke. The car swerved around and upset, the dead and injured being caught in the wreckage. All the victims were passengers.

French Runner Collapses.

Montreal, Oct. 4.—Henry St. Yves, the famous French long-distance runner, collapsed in the twenty-third mile of a race here. Physicians declared that his heart was affected and that he probably will be unable to run again.

Millionaire Philanthropist Dead.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 4.—Thomas H. Swope, millionaire and philanthropist, died suddenly at his home here last night following a stroke of apoplexy. He was 81 years old.

An advertising writer who cannot stick to the truth is wasting his energies in so humiliating a profession. He should become a press agent.

The best advertising is naked truth propelled by just enough wording to forcibly convey the idea.